Poindexter was graduated from Stephens High School and has taken college courses in commercial art and real estate. He lives at Ogemaw with his parents.

39 States on Daylight Saving Time

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
At least 39 states will go on Daylight Saving Time this year, an Associated Press survey showed today.

Among others the score stands this way as of now: One state, Hawaii, has decided to stay on standard time. Michigan appears certain to follow suit. Five others still are uncertain. Four more have not made up their minds definitely, but probably will switch to Daylight Saving Time.

A law, enacted by Congress directs all states — except those which exempt themselves — to observe Daylight Saving Time from 2 a.m. the last Sunday in April until 2 a.m. the last Sunday in October.

Any state may exempt itself by adopting a state law to that effect.

So, in the big majority of states, clocks will be put ahead one hour April 30 and remain that way until Oct. 29.

Hawaii's Legislature approved a bill this week to keep the state on standard time.

Here is the latest information from states still on the fence: Alabama — Legislation now is before lawmakers, but the state probably will go on daylight time this summer, at least.

Arkansas — There's a remote chance that a bill to bar daylight time may get through after the Legislature returns March 27 from a recess. But chances are slim.

Missouri's official flower is the hawthorn blossom.

Antiaircraft Fire Greater Than Ever

By ROBERT TUCKMAN
Aboard Carrier Kitty Hawk, Gulf of Tonkin (AP) — The admiral who directs the U.S. Navy's carrier strikes against North Vietnam said today the Communists are throwing up more antiaircraft fire than ever before.

Rear Adm. David C. Richardson also said the North Vietnamese are digging more and more underground storage areas to protect their war supplies from the American planes.

Richardson, commander of the 7th Fleet's Task Force 77, said in an interview: "The quantities of flak our pilots are getting are heavier than ever — about one-third heavier than last summer would be my guess."

In one recent raid, he continued, "We had 15 to 30 tons of ammunition fired at us in a matter of a couple of minutes. I suppose that every North Vietnamese over 4 feet high has a gun and is shooting at us."

U.S. intelligence officers estimate the North Vietnamese have some 6,000 antiaircraft sites spread around the country.

Task Force 77 is built around five aircraft carriers with 400 warplanes and includes 25 cruisers, destroyers and other ships. Usually, three of the carriers at one time are on "Yankee Station," in the Gulf of Tonkin 100 to 150 miles off the North Vietnamese coast.

Carrier bombers so far have concentrated their attacks largely on railroads, boxcars, barges and trucks to cut the flow of supplies and men to the South.

"We highlight transportation," Richardson said. "Once you take out his (North Vietnamese) transport, it's gone."

"But they adapt themselves to what we're doing. They build bypass bridges and roads, and they have an endless capacity for repairs."

"But repair requires a lot of effort, doesn't it?"

As for the North Vietnamese "going underground," Richardson said: "It's picked up a great deal. It is a response to our attacks, and it's not at all surprising. They are storing their high-priority materials — ammunition and fuel."

Russian Bomb Is Round in Rice

ANTWERP, Belgium (AP) — Dock workers found a nine-pound defused Russian bomb in the rice cargo of the 6,440-ton Egyptian freighter Port Said, the Belgian defense ministry announced today.

No explanation was available. A communiqué said the Belgian Army took possession of the bomb, which had no detonator or timing device. The bomb carried Russian inscriptions, the communiqué said.

Fulbright Says Latin Funds Pig in Poke

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., said Thursday that President Johnson's request for a commitment to provide Latin America aid funds amounts to a "subversion of the constitutional process."

Fulbright, saying he didn't like the idea of giving prior commitments to any president, said Congress will be committing itself in advance to courses of action about which it knows nothing "or as they say in Arkansas, we will have bought a pig in a poke."

Congress, he said, needn't be bypassed — "We're not idiots."

Johnson requested approval of a resolution to commit the United States to provide up to $1.5 billion aid to Latin America over a three-year period. He made the request after meeting with some 30 congressional leaders.

Johnson said he wants the resolution before he goes to the hemispheric summit conference in Punta Del Este April 12-14.

"It is actions such as this we are now asked to take which earn Congress the epithet of 'rubber stamp,'" Sen. Fulbright proposed a compromise in a resolution which he said would approve "the objective of Latin American integration and of multi-lateral financing of projects contributing to it."

That way, Fulbright said, "We will have kept our options open depending on the nature of the proposals presented to us and the circumstances prevailing in the world at the time."

Fulbright said Johnson's request reminded him of the Tonkin Gulf resolution of 1963 which he said he felt resulted in an unwarranted expansion of the Vietnam war.

Dodd May Testify in Own Defense

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thomas J. Dodd took the stand today in an investigation of his financial affairs and testified "I got in the hole in 1956 and I was never able to get out."

The white-haired Connecticut Democrat told the Senate ethics committee that money he borrowed was "sort of a revolving thing" — that as he paid off one loan he would have to borrow from someone else.

Dodd first ran for the Senate in 1956 and was defeated, but he was elected two years later and re-elected in 1964.

The committee's investigation centers principally on charges that Dodd used campaign funds for personal expenses, including the payment of loans.

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thomas J. Dodd may testify in his defense today at the Senate ethics committee's investigation of his financial affairs.

But neither the Connecticut Democrat nor his lawyer, John F. Sonnett, would bare their plans.

The hearings, centering principally on accusations that Dodd, 59, misappropriated campaign funds for his own use, seemed to be drawing to an end. However, uncertainties clouded the picture.

After a huddle Thursday, the bipartisan committee decided to bring in another witness, Edward F. Sullivan, manager of Dodd's Hartford, Conn., office. Sullivan has been described as the man in charge of paying the bills in Dodd's 1964 re-election campaign.

Sonnett said Sullivan is aged, arthritic, and — as of Thursday — snow-bound. He added he didn't know when Sullivan could get here.

Also still up in the air was a committee decision on whether to accept in evidence a stack of affidavits swearing that ticket-buyers to testimonials for Dodd intended that Dodd use the money as he saw fit.

Sonnett said there were 395 affidavits from among some 1,500 persons who attended the fund-raising events between 1961 and 1965. If the committee is unwilling to accept them as evidence, he said, the only alternative would be to call the contributors as witnesses.

However, Sonnett told newsmen he hoped it would be possible to conclude the hearings today.

The witnesses Sonnett called Thursday were Charles A. Appel Jr., a handwriting expert, and Alvin Oremland, manager of Schneider's liquor store here. Both were called in an attempt to discredit earlier testimony by Michael V. O'Hare.

O'Hare, Dodd's former office manager, testified the senator had sought through money orders and other means to conceal the use of "political checks" to cover personal expenses.

O'Hare is one of four ex-employees of the senator who removed some 4,000 documents from Dodd's office files and turned over copies to columnist Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson.

Pearson and Anderson subsequently wrote columns that led to the current investigation. Dodd has brought a $2-million libel suit against them.

Bradford's Manuscript
The original manuscript of William Bradford's "The History of Plymouth Plantation" disappeared during the Revolutionary War. In 1885, it was discovered in England and sent back to the United States. This original work is now among the state archives of Massachusetts.

Vote Buying Charge Is Under Probe

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP) — A hearing was continued until next Wednesday on whether a court order was valid that called for a Little Rock bank to make public its records on a Republican party account.

The hearing opened Thursday before Circuit Judge Russell Roberts after Prosecuting Atty. Jeff Mobley obtained a court both friends and foes of the treaty debated it in the broad context of U.S. policy toward the Communists.

Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, whose support was crucial for the treaty, rose from a hospital bed to voice his backing just before the final vote.

Dirksen saw the overriding problem in the world today as the prevention of a nuclear clash between the superpowers.

"To be sure, a consular treaty is such a small step toward ameliorating this condition, but it is at least a step," the GOP chief said.

But Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., a leader of the treaty's opponents, found it inconceivable that the United States could "sit down and make love with the Russians" while they furnish weapons to kill American GIs.

order to check the account records at the First National Bank.

Bank President J. Finley Vincent has refused to make the records public.

The controversy began when state Sen. Guy Jones of Conway said several Negroes in Faulkner County had received checks ranging from $5 to $50 before the November general election.

The checks were signed by Wanda Tudor, a receptionist in Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's office, who said she had written the checks for GOP campaign expenses.

Mobley said he was planning to subpoena Mrs. Tudor to have her bring the originals of the checks and the record of whom they were paid to.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Short, short skirts on women of all ages, sizes and shapes may be commonplace all over America, but the only place one is likely to run into high style around the hemline on television is in the variety programs.

It isn't that performers like Lucille Ball and Eva Gabor are not fashion-conscious. They are, but they are even more conscious that fashion is fickle and that re-runs of comedy programs are very profitable.

In many current Lucy shows, the actress appears in smart two-piece suits—and invariably the skirt discreetly covers the knees. Miss Gabor who in her present role of an incredibly urban soul in "Green Acres" incredibly bucolic setting, probably has the most chic wardrobe in television, but rarely reveals a knee cap.

But Carol Burnett turned up Sunday night on the Smothers Brothers variety hour in a short sequin dinner dress. Peggy Cass occasionally wears miniskirts and white stockings on her panel show, "To Tell the Truth."

They are permitted to. There is little rerun value in variety and game shows. Comedy shows, particularly Lucille Ball's series, have long lives as reruns. Some of those early "I Love Lucy" shows have been repeated as often as 14 times in 15 years.

Safest shows, from the standpoint of showing age, are the period pieces. After all the cowboys and dance hall hostesses of the 1880s are no different in dress now than they were in Gary Cooper's heyday. Laurence Bacall will participate in a documentary about her late husband, Humphrey Bogart, now in production by David Wolper for broadcast next season. She has no connection—nor will have—with ABC's "Bogart" special on April 23, a product of a pair of British documentarians. Because of her attitude toward the upcoming ABC show, Richard Burton, originally set to do the narration, has pulled out.

Tallulah Bankhead, this week's "Batman" villainess, will narrate a children's film, "Melephant" next Sunday afternoon on CBS. This is almost as startling casting as Shakespearean actor Maurice Evans starring in "Tarzan" on NBC April 7.

STEPPFATHER IN TOO MUCH OF A HURRY

Dear Helen: I was divorced, now remarried to a widow with two boys, aged seven and nine. My own two children, now grown, turned out very well and are a joy to behold.

I need some guidance on these two new ones, so that I will not be considered a mean old stepfather. They are good kids, but should be straightened out on two points.

The first: TV watching. They have unlimited hours for it, and spend their before-breakfast time engrossed in cartoons.

The second: eating. I have not tried force to change their habits, which are pitiable. The other night I gave the smallest boy four peas, and he put his head down on the table and started to cry. Naturally, much sympathy resulted. They get away with ordering special food and eat just what they want. I had no problem with my own two kids, who ate very well and are fine physical specimens. Guidelines, please? —CON-FUSED

Dear Con: The only guideline I can give is "Slow down." Become these boys' father first. Then you'll manage fatherly discipline with less friction.

They've had one boss — their mother — for several years. Naturally, they'll resent "outside" interference. (And so will your wife, especially if you compare YOUR exceptional kids to hers who "need straightening out.")

You'll get much better results if you set examples, rather than lay down strict rules — and if you want less TV — watching — grab a mitt and go play ball with them! — H.

Dear Helen: Barefooted and pregnant, that's me. My husband expects to keep it that way. We live 12 miles out of town, in a ramshackle shack with no hot water. We have been married six years, have five children and I'm expecting another in June. I'm 23, he's 38. I never get away from the house. He even buys our groceries. We don't have company, and we never visit people. There's always some excuse, mainly I'm pregnant and don't look right. He's always complaining how I look.

He is a nut on cleanliness and expects the house in perfect order at all times. I try, and it keeps me tagged. He doesn't help. He says he can't afford a hot water tank, but that's because he spends most of his money on liquor. He's away a lot, at bars. Sometimes he beats me.

I never nag and I'm not one to stand up to anybody. I don't quite believe in divorce. Besides, who'd take care of the children? He wouldn't. I just keep trying and trying, but nothing pleases him. What can I do? — WORN DOWN

Dear Worn: So long as you allow it, you'll keep right on being a pregnant doormat. For heaven's sake — realize you're a 20th Century American WIFE, not a serf. Stand up and fight for your rights! I predict your "master" will be so flabbergasted, he may even give you a few. If not — contact your Legal Aid Society. No woman should be forced to live like this! — H.

Dear Helen: My lady friend has gone with me for six months. But her daughter says she can't marry, anyone — ever. It isn't just me, the rule includes all men. The penalty for marriage: she'll never see her grandchild again. Is this right? — T.P.

Dear T: Of course it isn't right. A grown daughter shouldn't dictate her mother's life any more than a mother should run her grown daughter's affairs. If you call this bossy gal's bluff, she may back down. — H. Copyright, 1967, Inc.

Sikes Leading Home Town Tournament

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Dan Sikes has his hometown rooting for him in the Jacksonville Open, but the 36-year-old lawyer says he thinks it's harder to win in golf at home than it is on the road.

"Even Arnold Palmer says the same thing," Jacksonville's only native son on the pro tour said Thursday after grabbing a one-stroke lead in the first round of the $100,000 tournament here.

"I was really nervous," added Sikes after his five-under-par 67 on the wind-raked Deerwood Club course. "It's hard not to let your mind stray when you see somebody you know all the way around the course."

"And I think you try too hard at home and get all tightened up because you want to win so badly in front of your friends," Sikes said. "I know I'd rather win the Jacksonville Open than any other tournament except the real big ones like the Masters."

Victory in the Jacksonville tournament would end a two-year drought for the Florida Law School graduate who last won the 1965 Cleveland Open.

Sikes' closest challengers going into today's second round were Gay Brewer Jr., last year's Jacksonville runner-up, and Kansas City rookie Jim Colbert, who shot 68s.

Colbert, who attended Kansas State on a football scholarship before turning to golf, has had little success since joining the tour a year ago. The 26-year-old father of three girls had a hot putting round to make his biggest surge as a pro, sinking birdie putts of 20, 20, 12 and 10 feet.

Brewer, edged by a stroke by Doug Sanders a year ago for the Jacksonville title, said he was playing well "and putting pretty good." The Dallas, Tex., veteran—who will be 35 on Sunday in the tournament showdown—was helped by a 35-foot approach shot which dropped for a birdie on the 16th hole.

Golf's big names were back in the pack, with Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player shooting 72s, Sanders a 73 and Plamer a 75.

Julius Boros, who won the Citrus Open last Sunday, shot a 77, a stroke back of Don January, who won a new car with a hole-in-one on the 156-yard eighth hole.

BASEBALL PREVIEW

-Kansas City A's

By SANDY PADWE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

PITCHING—Jim Nash reported to the A's last summer—absolutely broke. Doubtful if he'll ever have that problem again. Jim is one of the game's future stars. The right-hander finished with a 12-1 record, 2.06 ERA in half a season after being recalled from minors. Just one of many good young pitchers on this staff. Lew Krausse (14-9) finally made it last year. Jim (Catfish) Hunter had quick start, but finished only with 9-11. Another promising youngster, John (Blue Moon) Odom, was 5-5 with 2.50 ERA. Chuck Dobson (4-6). Paul Lindblad (5-10) other promising youngsters. Rookie Bill Edgeron (17-4) at Mobile will get close look. Bullpen capably manned by Jack Aker (8-4, 1.99 ERA), Wei Stock (2-2, 2.66). Lots of strong young arms. Inexperience the only problem. RATING—B—

Jim Nash

OUTFIELD—Club could really climb if it obtains—or develops—a hard-hitting outfielder. Rockies Rick Monday, Joe Rudi may be ready. If not, A's have four regulars returning: Joe Nuxtel (261), Mike Hershberger (253), Jim Gosger (234), Roger Repox (231). None outstanding, but they're competent. RATING—C+

CATCHING—Weak point. Phil Root excellent behind plate, but barred at bat (209). He's No. 1 right now. Young Dore Duncan being groomed to take over. Good year in winter league followed a 271, 46 HR, 112 RBI summer at Modesto. Rene Lachemann, Ken Suarez, both with major league experience, other possibilities. RATING—C

BENCH—One never knows about rookies A's have plenty with promise. Ted Kubiak an excellent defensive shortstop. Sal Bando could stick as third base sub. Experienced hands include Ernie Fazio, Ozzie Cavarero. RATING—C

SUMMARY—Al Dark brought this club, from 10th to 7th last year. He did it with pitching, speed, hustle, defense. No reason improvement shouldn't continue this year. Charley Finley spent a lot of bonus money the last few years. His investments look awfully good. Dark is serious and realistic—when he says this team will be a contender next year. PREDICTION—It's not next year yet, but another step up. 6TH.

Jr. Track Team Host Pre-district

The Spring athletic season moves into full swing Saturday with the track teams and the golf team traveling to pre-district meets.

Hope Junior tracksters, victors in two previous meets, is rated one of the favorites. The Bobkittens will host 11 other district teams here Saturday starting at 1 p.m.

The Bobcats stack high in predictions for the pre-district meet. With several outstanding times already this year, Hope should make a good showing at Magnolia Saturday afternoon.

Led by Senior Lee Fenwick, the Hope High golf team is stronger than usual. The season opens at Magnolia Saturday afternoon.

Mouthy Clay Silenced by Draft Board

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK (AP)—Cassius Clay isn't telling whether he'll go into the Army or jail, but it's become apparent that the heavyweight champion plans to put on a dazzling show in what "could be my last fight."

The undefeated, 25-year-old new Texan risks his title for the seventh time within a year and the ninth time in all Wednesday night when he faces 34-year-old Zora Foley at Madison Square Garden.

After confining most of his boxing activity earlier this week to nimble footwork, Clay opened up in the final two rounds of a four-round boxing drill Thursday with sparmate James Ellis.

The champ had a standing room crowd of more than 300 cheering enthusiastically as he punched away at close quarters with his 6-foot-11, 195-pound buddy and sparmate. Ellis has about the same physical measurements as Foley.

"My main concern now is with Foley," said Clay when he was asked to comment on the word from Louisville that he had been ordered to report for Army induction April 11.

He said that information on any appeals would have to come from his attorneys, chiefly Hayden Covington.

When asked if he would go into the Army or to jail if all of his appeals from the draft are rejected, Clay said: "My decision is made. I won't tell you what it is. I have to answer to the government, not reporters. But I know what I have to do."

A reporter told Clay there were Muslims in the Army. Clay quickly retorted "the jalls are full of Muslims."

The champion, who has discarded the name of Cassius Clay for that of Muhammad Ali, is seeking exemption from the draft on the grounds that he is a Black Muslim minister.

Meanwhile Zora Foley, the quiet man for Wednesday's home television fight, stepped up his boxing preparations for his $70,000 title shot.

The 34-year-old Korean War Army veteran boxed four brisk rounds with Wendell Newton in the Garden's Exposition Hall after Clay finished his workout.

Much slower than the fleet-footed, agile champion, Foley continued to concentrate on solid left hooks to the body and fast right-hand counter-punches to the head. Foley will be giving away age, height, weight and reach. He may decide to gamble on a knockout.

"I'm going to try," he said.

Derby at the Fair Grounds.

While better known 3-year-olds, such as Reflected Glory, Rukens and Tumble Wind, were building up reputations in rich races at Santa Anita and Hialeah Park, Mrs. Joe W. Brown kept her son of My Babu at the New Orleans Track, where he romped in all of his four starts. The last was in the LeComte Handicap on Feb. 25.

The 1 1/2-mile Louisiana Derby, feature of the final program at the Fairgrounds, should furnish a real test for Grand Premier. He showed he was sharp by sizzling one-half mile in 46 4/5 seconds Wednesday.

Conditions of the race call for Grand Premier to carry 120 pounds, six less than Harvey Peltier's Diplomat Way. After showing little since winning the rich Arlington-Washington Futurity early last fall, Diplomat Way looked a little more like himself with a sprint victory last Saturday.

Trainer Eddie Neylo also has shipped the Wheatley Stable's Top Bid in for the Derby.

The Louisiana Derby is the richest race on the national card.

CHARLEY ECKMAN steps right in to break up this fight. Charley, who has been officiating collegiate and professional basketball for 29 years, says this is his last season. The abuse from fans, he says, is just too much to take.

Allen Signs, Marichal Only Big Holdout

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer And then there was one.

Rich Allen left the automobile business and Juan Marichal with one swift signature Thursday, becoming what Philadelphia General Manager John Quinn called "one of the highest paid four-year players in the game." Allen's signing left San Francisco's Marichal as the only holdout.

Allen, who was spending spring training selling cars in Philadelphia while holding out for $100,000, probably reached $75,000. He made $40,000 last year when he hit .317, drove in 110 runs and belted 40 home runs.

"I'm happy with the contract and happy that I'll be with the team in a few days," Allen said. "I like playing ball too well to enjoy sitting out while the rest of the players are working out in Florida."

Two weeks ago, Allen said he was ready to spend the season selling autos if the Phillies did not meet his price. Both sides compromised to reach Thursday's agreement.

Marichal, the Giants' ace right-hander, and Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants, apparently have reached an impasse in negotiations.

Marichal is still at home in the Dominican Republic, thinking in terms of six figures while the Giants are standing by their $90,000 offer.

Another $100,000 athlete, Baltimore's Frank Robinson, expects to test his right knee for the first time under game conditions tonight against the New York Mets.

Robinson, who underwent a cartilage operation during the winter, went through a stiff sliding and running workout Thursday with no ill effects.

In other exhibitions, Philadelphia edged St. Louis 3-2, Detroit dropped Cincinnati 6-3, Atlanta topped the New York Yankees 6-4 in 16 innings, Cleveland whipped San Francisco 6-2, the Chicago Cubs downed California 7-1, the Chicago White Sox defeated Houston 11-3 Pittsburgh blanked Baltimore 6-0 and Kansas City beat Minnesota 5-2.

The Mets took a five-run lead into the final inning against the Red Sox and came out of it five runs behind.

"That's the wildest thing I've ever been in," said Wes Westrum, who is only starting his second season of managing the Mets.

Larry Jackson pitched five scoreless innings as the Phillies edged the Cardinals. Tony Taylor drove in two first inning runs with a single.

Jerry Lumpe drove in three runs with a pair of hits, leading the Tigers over the Reds. Deron Johnson homered for Cincinnati.

Singles by Hank Aaron and Joe Torre and a sacrifice fly by Felipe Alou drove in three runs in the 16th inning as the Braves dumped the Yankees. New York made seven errors in the marathon.

Cleveland scored all its runs in the fourth inning against the Giants, battering starter Ray Sadecki. Fred Whitfield and Leon Wagner stroked the key hits.

Dick Bertell's double triggered a six-run seventh inning glarlioni faded to .235. Down the as the Cubs routed the Angels. stretch Jesse Gonder (.225) was Bubba Morton had three hits for California.

Lee Elia, Pete Ward, Tommie Agee and Dick Kenworthy waited home runs in the White Sox.

Sox' romp over the Astros.

Jim Shellenback, Billy Knoch and Doc Ellis—three Pirate farmhands—held the Orioles to three hits as Pittsburgh shut out Baltimore.

In the Kansas City-Minnesota game in Caracas, Venezuela, Kansas City scored three runs in the fourth for its victory, the first after six straight exhibition losses.

Wise Guys Are Picking the Pirates

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—

Take the National League batting champ, Matty Alou, as the leadoff man. Put Maury Wills in the No. 2 spot. Then follow with proven hitters like Robert Clemente, Willie Stargell and Donn Clendenon. Add the whiz short-second combo of Gene Alley and Bill Mazeroski, plus the catcher and pitcher.

No wonder the wise guys are lining up behind the Pittsburgh Pirates as the probable pennant winner in the National League.

The Pirates came close last year when they led through the dog days of August and early September. They still were in the race until the day before the season ended although loss of a final three-game series to San Francisco dropped them into third place.

The thin pitching line has been bolstered by the addition of Juan Pizarro from the Chicago White Sox and Dennis Ribant from the New York mets.

"I like my chances better than I did last year at this time," said Manager Harry Walker. "The Phillies and Braves will be trouble. In fact, the whole league is tough."

"This has got to be one of the most exciting races in the history of the National League. You have to get the break to win. Each man has to come up to his potential and you can't have injuries to key men."

"My first year here we had to change the thinking of a lot of people. Last year we had to do much less. This year everybody is doing it my way because they know the way I think."

"Wills will help us with his glove at third base. We should have a real fine infield. I expect Maury to come in and talk to the pitcher at times. Maz and Alley never open up too much."

"I had Wills talking to the players about base stealing the other day. We'll do it again later. I don't expect everybody to start stealing bases but he will help get them in the right attitude. That was one of the reasons we got him."

Alley at shortstop and Mazeroski at second base were the key men last year when the Pirates broke the major league double play record with 215.

Clendenon, a 6-foot-3 1/2-inch, 210-pound first baseman, rounds out the infield. He hit 28 homers, knocked in 98 runs and was one of five regulars who hit .299 or better last season. Alley also hit .299. Maz batted .262.

Alou platooned with Manny Mota in center field, and the two drove pitchers to drink. Alou led the league at .342 and Mota hit .332, second best, although Manny was not up at bat enough times to be an official contender.

Clemente was the Most Valuable Player in the league with his .317 average, 29 homers and 119 runs batted in. Stargell in left field hammered 33 homers, knocked in 102 runs and hit .315.

Catching was a Pirate problem last year because Jim Frazier faded to .235. Down the No. 1 receiver, Pagliaroni came to camp 16 pounds lighter and probably will recapture his starting job.

The pitching let the Pirates

Wyoming Has Chance Over UCLA

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer Hardly anyone expected Wyoming to qualify for the NCAA post season championship tournament when the college basketball season opened last December. Yet the Cowboys from Laramie did and tonight they have the chance to do what no other team has done, beat UCLA and its Player of the Year, Lew Alcindor.

The Cowboys, with the poorest record of any team in the NCAA tourney, 15-12, but with a seven-game winning streak, go against the team with the best, 26-0, in the semifinals of the Far West Regional at Corvallis, Ore.

The NCAA, with eight games at four regional sites, moves into the national spotlight following the triumphs of Southern Illinois and Marquette in the semifinals of the NIT Thursday night.

A capacity turnout of 18,499 at New York's Madison Square Garden saw Southern Illinois come from 11 points back to beat Rutgers 79-70 after Marquette had whipped Marshall 83-78.

Southern Illinois, now 23-2 with an 18-game winning streak, battles Marquette, 21-8, in the nationally televised final game Saturday afternoon.

Winston-Salem State from North Carolina surprised Kentucky Wesleyan 82-73 and Southwest Missouri routed Illinois State 93-76 in the semifinals of the NCAA small college tournament at Evansville, Ind. Winston-Salem, 30-1, and Southwest Missouri, 23-4, play tonight for the championship.

Oklahoma Baptist, the defending champion, St. Benedict's, Morris Harvey and Central Washington won in the NAIA quarter-finals at Kansas City to round out Thursday's action.

Oklahoma Baptist edged Southwestern Louisiana 66-65. St. Benedict's beat St. Mary's, Tex., 88-73. Morris Harvey downed Tennessee Wesleyan 75-58 and Central Washington squeaked by Eastern New Mexico 60-58.

St. Benedict's, 25-2, meets Morris Harvey, 28-3, and Oklahoma Baptist, 24-6, battles Central Washington, 26-3, in the NAIA semifinals tonight.

Nine of the Top Ten teams in the final Associated Press poll of the season play in the NCAA down last year. The nitters combined for a club average of .279, the best in the majors, but the pitchers gave up about four runs a game.

"I have seven starters," said Walker. "It's up to them to fight it out by the process of elimination. The seven are Vern Law (12-8), Bob Veale (16-12), Steve Blass (11-7), Tommie Sisk (10-5), Woody Fryman (12-9), Pizarro (8-6 with the White Sox) and Ribant (11-9 with the Mets)."

The bullpen corps includes Al McBean (4-3), Pete Mikkelsen (9-8) and Elroy Face (6-6).

EXPRESSIONS THAT BLOOM in the spring blossom in the Florida sun as Bobby Nichols, top left, grimaces as a putt fails to drop and Doug Sanders looks as if he has taken a punch in the stomach after scoring a birdie. Mickey Mantle, bottom left, is all determination as he takes his cuts in Fort Lauderdale and Braves' pitcher Denny Lemaster shows what he thinks of spring training in general as he sticks out his tongue in West Palm Beach.

Walt Frazier, with 26 points, sparked the comeback of Southern Illinois against Rutgers in the NIT after the Salukis had trailed at 32-21. Bob Lloyd and Jim Valvano, Rutgers' stars, were held to four points each in the second half. Valvano finished with 24, Lloyd 20.

George Thompson threw in 28 points to lead Marquette over Marshall. The Warriors pulled away with a 10-2 burst in the second half after Marshall had rallied to within one point at 57-56. George Stone led the Thundering Herd from West Virginia with 25 points.

Eugene Smiley, with 27, and Earl Monroe, with 24, combined for 51 points to pace the Winston-Salem Rams in their upset of Kentucky Wesleyan. Danny Bolden's 27 led Southwest Missouri over Illinois State.

BALTIMORE (AP)—As he had promised, owner Carroll Rosenbloom picked an Old Colt to become general manager of Baltimore's entry in the National Football League.

But the Old Colt named Thursday to fill the vacancy created by the death of Joe Campanella didn't come from the players' ranks.

The new general manager is Harry Holmes, who was advanced to the top office post from his job as publicity director. Named to replace Holmes was Jim Walker, a reporter for the Baltimore Evening Sun.

The fact that in 1965 he performed miracles in getting massive and constructive programs through Congress was soon forgotten as he intensified the American war effort in Vietnam. Johnson the symbol of their discontent. The fact that in 1965 he performed miracles in getting massive and constructive programs through Congress was soon forgotten as he intensified the American war effort in Vietnam. Johnson the symbol of their discontent.

His popularity in the polls quickly skidded while at the same time the country was becoming ever more prosperous. In a way, it was a strange condition for he had little of the traditional presidential friction with Congress. That friction—particularly between a president and the leaders of the opposition party in Congress—has always provided a handy breeding ground for discontent nationally, dividing the country into the camps of the two parties. But something new, something not seen in years, has been added here. Even without the war or trouble with Congress, there would probably still be a lot of antagonism toward Johnson by people who overlook his performance and complain they dislike his personality. Meanwhile, the Republicans are far from coming up with a presidential opponent upon whom they themselves can agree. So the antagonism toward Johnson is not rooted in impatience to replace him with some much-preferred personality. Such an individual has never appeared nor been chosen yet.

There are many factors behind the dislike for Johnson, not all of them clear at all. Restlessness may be one of them, a restlessness made possible by the country's prosperity and comparative tranquility, except for the war. There is still too much of a veil over Red China to say with authority why Mao Tse-tung, the long-cherished leader, had to resort to the ludicrous device of young Red Guards to hush his critics and preserve his ideas. But there is no doubt of broad discontent in China, an indication of the Chinese people's desire to skip into the future instead of being weighted down by the old concepts of Mao Tse-tung. He was a great man to the Chinese. He, too, felt he was riding on the main highway of history. But his frantic actions seem to reveal he fears he may be shoved into a ditch of time. Top Men Bump Their Heads Politically

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is like a Sunday afternoon in the traffic jam of history. There's no fire, no crisis, but there's a lot of discontent with the man up front, as if people felt they were racing their motors. Three of the front men have bumped their heads—French President Charles de Gaulle, President Johnson, and Red China's Mao Tse-tung—but no one knows who is going to take their place, or who can. De Gaulle, who has an irritating habit of insisting upon the right of way, just got rebuffed by the French people in an election which gives the Gaullists a bare majority in the General Assembly. France was a political mess when he took over nine years ago. Always convinced he was on time's main highway, De Gaulle had long urged a strong executive for the French people, and he became one. He calmed his country, solidified it, and gave it a sense of direction although that may turn out to have been only a breathing spell, a pause between shambles. By this time the French must realize that De Gaulles occur only occasionally in history and that when he finally steps down, or dies, there is no one like him on the French scene now to take his place. Yet, even though in his period of power they enjoyed more tranquility, than they had in years, or are likely to see again soon after him, they have expressed discontent without any crisis to arouse them. The reasons may be many but it's a discontent which probably has its deepest roots in human restlessness, a condition not limited to France. There is no national crisis in this country, either, even though it is at war in Vietnam. Yet, the war has split the country, with those who disapprove in making Johnson the symbol of their discontent. The fact that in 1965 he performed miracles in getting massive and constructive programs through Congress was soon forgotten as he intensified the American war effort in Vietnam. Johnson the symbol of their discontent.

RED STYLES these days follow somewhat the same trends as western clothes, with perhaps a bit more austerity. Among garments shown at a style show in Sofia, Bulgaria, featuring creations from several Communist countries, was this sport outfit from East Germany. It includes a short-skirted jumper, striped blouse, high socks and "little girl" shoes.

European Command Now in Germany

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
STUTTGART, Germany (AP) — The U.S. European Command (EUCOM), the top American military headquarters in Europe, began operating in Stuttgart today after lowering its flag at its former headquarters outside Paris for the last time. Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, commander of EUCOM and supreme allied commander for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, said the new facilities in Stuttgart make possible the "continued readiness of U.S. forces in Europe." EUCOM for the past 13 years has been located at St. Germain-en-Laye. That headquarters was given a symbolic closing Tuesday two weeks before the April 1 deadline set by President Charles de Gaulle for withdrawal of all U.S. and NATO forces from France.

THIS SKI BUFF brought a bikini to last year's international Airlines Ski Festival, March 17-19, at Mt.
Alyeska near Anchorage,
and the idea caught on.
Besides the usual cross-country, slalom and giant slalom contests this year, a bikini-clad racing event has been added. Pretty airline stewardesses will schuss down the slopes sans sweaters, sans skis, and
sans goose bumps, since Alaska's springtime slopes are often quite warm.

ALLEY DOB

Opening bids of three and four in a suit are called preemptive bids or pre-empt. They show a one-suit hand that will take a lot of tricks with that suit as trump but very few tricks against an opponent's trump.

Young Killer Is Judged Mentally Ill

ORANGE, Tex. (AP)—A district judge ruled Thursday that Ronnie Lee Ozio—a 14-year-old accused killer of three who heard a "gruff male voice commanding 'killkillkill'" —is mentally ill.

Judge Eugene Hoyt made no ruling on Ozio's status as a juvenile delinquent. Hoyt said young Ozio, accused killer of

Shamrocks Are the Rule for Today

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
WASHINGTON (AP) — The case of the wilting shamrocks posed a problem for sons and daughters of the Emerald Isle this St. Patrick's Day.

A colleen at Aer Lingus, Irish International Airlines, confided that instead of having bushels of potted shamrocks straight from the Old Sod to distribute among its friends and prospective customers, the company has been forced to buy American-grown plants.

The reason: The U.S. Agriculture Department takes a dim view of the importation of his father, gaandmother and his father's fiancée in a New Year's Day rampage, will be committed for psychiatric care for an "indefinite period."

Dr. Grace Jameson, a psychiatrist at the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston, said Ozio didn't remember anything for 24 days after the triple slaying. But under sedation, she said, the youth blurted out that in October he began hearing a "gruff male voice in his head commanding him to kill kill kill."

The slender, undersized youth was not present at the hearing. Dr. Jameson said Ozio's recollection of the slayings had brought on massive feelings of guilt and he "wants to go to the electric chair."

She said Ozio did not know right from wrong at the time of the shootings.

Dist. Atty. Roy S. Wingate testified Ozio told him "he dreamed he was 'shooting squirrels with a rifle' instead of slaughtering his family and stepmother-to-be."

Wingate filed a court petition late Thursday formally asking Ozio's indefinite commitment to the medical school for treatment.

The petition to declare Ozio a juvenile delinquent because he is charged with murder with malice was dismissed by Hoyt's ruling of insanity.

The petition is based on the shooting death of Ozio's father, John Ozio, 39, of Orange.

Witnesses testified to seeing young Ozio shoot his grandmother, Mrs. Victoria Ozio, 77, and Mrs. Bobby Mayberry, 34, who was visiting from Arkansas.

"The thing to do," he said, "is to encase them in plastic to preserve the moisture, and then keep them in the refrigerator until you're ready to present them."

The ambassador brought over a splendid vase of waterford cut glass to hold the shamrocks for the annual White House ceremony.

Etched on the vase is a portrait of "Meagher of the Sword."

WASHINGTON SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 12

P. O. BOX 68

WASHINGTON, ARKANSAS 71862

NOTICE OF SCHOOL DESEGREGATION PLAN UNDER TITLE VI OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964

THIS NOTICE IS MADE AVAILABLE TO INFORM YOU ABOUT THE DESEGREGATION OF OUR SCHOOLS. KEEP A COPY OF THIS NOTICE. IT WILL ANSWER MANY QUESTIONS ABOUT SCHOOL DESEGREGATION.

1. DESEGREGATION PLAN IN EFFECT

The Washington public school system is being desegregated under a plan adopted in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The purpose of the desegregation plan is to eliminate from our school system the racial segregation of students and all other forms of discrimination based on race, color, or national origin.

2. THIRTY-DAY SPRING CHOICE PERIOD

Each student or his parent, or other adult person acting as parent, is required to choose the school the student will attend next school year. The choice period will begin on March 28, and close April 28, 1967.

3. EXPLANATORY LETTERS AND SCHOOL CHOICE FORMS

On the first day of the choice period, an explanatory letter and this notice will be sent by first-class mail to the parent, or other adult person acting as parent, of each student then in the schools who is expected to attend school the following school year. A school choice form will be sent with each letter, together with a return envelope addressed to the Superintendent. Additional copies of the letter, this notice and the choice form are freely available to the public at any school and at the Superintendent's office.

4. RETURNING THE CHOICE FORMS

Parents and students, at their option, may return the completed choice forms by hand to any school or by mail to the Superintendent's office, at any time during the 30-day choice period. No preference will be given for choosing early during the choice period. A choice is required for each student. No assignment to a school can be made unless a choice is made first.

5. CHOICE FORM INFORMATION

The school choice form lists the names, locations and grades offered for each school. The reasons for any choice made are not to be stated. The form asks for the name, address and age of the student, the school and grade currently or last attended, the school chosen for the following year, the appropriate signature, and whether the form has been signed by the student or his parent. Any letter or other written communication which identifies the student and the school he wishes to attend will be deemed just as valid as if submitted on the choice form supplied by the school system. The names of students and the schools they choose or are assigned to under the plan will not be made public by school officials.

6. COURSE AND PROGRAM INFORMATION

To guide students and parents in making a choice of school, listed below, by schools, are the courses and programs which are not given in every school in this school system.

The courses and programs that are offered at Hope and Yerger High Schools but are not offered at Lincoln are physical science, physics, speech, Latin, Spanish, general math, journalism, shorthand, office practice, band, bookkeeping, and football.

Lincoln has an "A" rating. Hope and Yerger High Schools are "North Central" rated.

7. SIGNING THE CHOICE FORM

A choice form may be signed by a parent or other adult person acting as parent. A student who has reached the age of 15 at the time of choice, or will next enter the ninth or any higher grade, may sign his own choice form. The student's choice shall be controlling unless a different choice is exercised by his parent before the end of the period during which the student exercises his choice.

8. PROCESSING OF CHOICES

No choice will be denied for any reason other than overcrowding. In cases where granting all choices for any school would cause overcrowding, the students choosing the school who live closest to it will be assigned to that school. Whenever a choice is to be denied, overcrowding will be determined by a uniform standard applicable to all schools in the system.

9. NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT, SECOND CHOICE

All students and their parents will be promptly notified in writing of their school assignments. Should any student be denied his choice because of overcrowding he will be promptly notified and given a choice among all other schools in the system where space is available.

10. STUDENTS MOVING INTO THE COMMUNITY

A choice of school for any student who will be new to the school system may be made during the 30-day choice period or at any other time before he enrolls in school. An explanatory letter, this notice and the school choice form will be given out for each new student as soon as the school system knows about the student. At least seven days will be allowed for the return of the choice form when a choice is made after the 30-day choice period. A choice must be made for each student. No assignment to any school can be made unless a choice is made first.

11. STUDENTS ENTERING FIRST GRADE

The parent, or other adult person acting as parent, of every child entering the first grade is required to choose the school his child will attend. Choices will be made under the same free choice process used for students new to the school system in other grades, as provided in paragraph 10.

12. PRIORITY OF LATE CHOICES

No choice made after the end of the 30-day choice period may be denied for any reason other than overcrowding. In the event of overcrowding, choices made during the 30-day choice period will have first priority. Overcrowding will be determined by the standard provided for in paragraph 8. Any parent or student whose first choice is denied because of overcrowding will be given a second choice in the manner provided for in paragraph 9.

13. TESTS, HEALTH RECORDS AND OTHER ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

Any academic tests or other procedures used in assigning students to schools, grades, classrooms, sections, courses of study, or for any other purpose, will be applied uniformly to all students without regard to race, color or national origin. No choice of school will be denied because of failure at the time of choice to provide any health record, birth certificate, or other document. The student will be tentatively assigned in accordance with the plan and the choice made, and given ample time to obtain any required document. Curriculum, credit, and promotion procedures will not be applied in such a way as to hamper freedom of choice of any student.

14. CHOICES ONCE MADE CANNOT BE ALTERED

Once a choice has been submitted, it may not be changed, even though the choice period has not ended. The choice is binding for the entire school year to which it applies, except in the case of (1) compelling hardship, (2) change of residence to a place where another school is closer, (3) the availability of a school designed to fit the special needs of a physically handicapped student, (4) the availability at another school of a course of study required by the student, which is not available at the school chosen.

15. ALL OTHER ASPECTS OF SCHOOLS DESEGREGATED

All school-connected services, facilities, athletics, activities and programs are open to all on a desegregated basis. A student attending school for the first time on a desegregated basis may not be subject to any disqualification or waiting period for participation in activities and programs, including athletics, which might otherwise apply because he is a transfer student. All transportation furnished for the school system will also operate on a desegregated basis. Facilities will be desegregated, and no staff member will lose his position because of race, color or national origin. This includes any case where less staff is needed because schools are closed or enrollment is reduced.

16. ATTENDANCE ACROSS SCHOOL SYSTEM LINES

No arrangement will be made, or permission granted, by this school system for any students living in the community it serves to attend school in another school system, where this would tend to limit desegregation, or where the opportunity is not available to all students without regard to race, color or national origin. No arrangement will be made, or permission granted, by this school system for any students living in another school system to attend school in this system, where this would tend to limit desegregation, or where the opportunity is not available to all students without regard to race, color or national origin. The Washington School District will make arrangements for students of either race, in grades nine through twelve to attend either Hope High School or Yerger High School, provided the student desires to attend because of the higher rated school or to receive benefits of something offered there which is not available in the Washington District. The Washington School District will grant permission for students of another school district to attend one of its schools for similar reasons.

17. VIOLATIONS TO BE REPORTED

It is a violation of our desegregation plan for any school official or teacher to influence or dissuade any person from choosing a school where a desegregated education can be obtained, or to threaten any person with penalties or promise favors for any choice made. It is also a violation of Federal regulations for any person to intimidate, threaten, coerce, retaliate or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with the free making of a choice of a desegregated school. Any person having any knowledge of any violation of these prohibitions should report the facts immediately by mail or phone to the Equal Educational Opportunities Program, U. S. Office of Education, Washington, D. C. 20202 (telephone 202-962-0333). The name of any person reporting any violation will not be disclosed without his consent. Any other violation of the desegregation plan or other discrimination based on race, color, or national origin in the school system is also a violation of Federal requirements, and should likewise be reported. Anyone with a complaint to report should first bring it to the attention of State or local school officials, unless he feels it would not be helpful to do so. If State or local officials do not correct the violation promptly, any person familiar with the facts of the violation should report them immediately to the U.S. Office of Education at the above address or phone number.

1966 COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AWARDS WINNERS

These were the representatives receiving the awards for Arkansas cities named winners in the 1966 annual Community Development contest at a Hotel Marion luncheon in Little Rock March 1.

Arkansas Power & Light Company congratulates the ninety-four cities who competed in the 1966 annual Community Development Awards contest.

Special congratulations go to the winning cities in each of the contest's four categories. Through its participation in the category of City and Area Planning, Pine Bluff now has a clear picture of the city's expected growth to the year 2000.

Pocahontas was the proud winner in the Industrial Development category. During 1966 Pocahontas attracted three new industries which will provide employment for 750 persons.

Gurdon was named the winner in the Special Projects category. Fifty-six civic organizations in Gurdon and surrounding communities resolved to "rebuild their city" during 1966. They succeeded in making Gurdon a better, more prosperous community.

In the Recreation, Parks and Facilities category, Magnolia and Hope tied for first place to share equally the $1,000 cash award. Both cities now have greatly improved sports and recreational facilities and much broader participation in many available activities.

AP&L is proud to be one of the sponsors of this program . . . it's another fine way of "Helping Build Arkansas."

Buffalo River
Issue Settled

Arkansas was jolted this week by the disclosure that the state Publicity and Parks Commission had adopted a resolution last month refusing to give Buffalo River State Park to the National Park Service when the latter requests it.

Obviously the commission, although subject to the will of the people, is attempting to dictate public policy—and, in fact, has reversed its own position on the Buffalo River.

The rest of us had thought the long argument over whether the Buffalo was to be damned up or preserved as a scenic spot under the auspices of the National Park Service was settled last year. There were three decisive actions: (1) Following statewide protests and a majority opposition by north Arkansas citizens who are closest to the Buffalo the U.S. Corps of Engineers publicly abandoned plans for a dam; (2) The dam's main congressional sponsor, Jim Trimble, was beaten for re-election last November by a Republican, John Paul Hammerschmidt; and (3) The Arkansas delegation in Congress now is rallying behind the plan to make the Buffalo a national river under the National Park Service.

That there is skulduggery behind the switch in the Publicity and Parks Commission's policy seems to be borne out by the minutes of last month's meeting. The minutes show that the Buffalo resolution was seconded by C. E. Tudor of Mountain View. Mr. Tudor is the son of James Tudor, owner of the weekly newspaper Mountain Wave of Marshall, and is now running his father's paper—the Tudors being the main leaders in the fight to get a dam for the Buffalo.

This is the behind-the-scenes story of last month's surprising resolution by the Publicity and Parks Commission. The commission originally leaned toward the development of the Buffalo as a national park. Then it was forced into a neutral position. Now it has been maneuvered into opposing the national park plan—obviously with someone's lingering hope that the dam idea isn't completely dead.

But the people have spoken. Jim Trimble is an ex-congressman. And now it looks as though justice would be done if we had some ex-Publicity and Parks commissioners.

Will Make Death Row Decisions

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said Thursday that he would decide each case of three Arkansas inmates on death row on its merits.

Rockefeller, saying he wanted to investigate each case carefully before making his decision on whether to set an execution date or to commute the death sentence, said making the decision was "one of the toughest jobs a governor has to face."

He made the comments in reference to the U. S. Supreme Court's recent refusal to review the cases of the three men.

Fire Destroys Harmony School

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — A wooden gymnasium was destroyed and the main building at Harmony Grove School was damaged Thursday by fire.

There were no injuries, but class was dismissed until further notice.

The fire, which apparently started in the janitor's room of the gymnasium, destroyed the water pump house and slightly damaged a new gymnasium under construction.

Rioting Set Off in Jerusalem

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP) — Autopsies and unemphatic set off rioting in Jerusalem and Tel Aviv.

Fifty-eight persons, including 18 police, were injured Tuesday at a demonstration in Jerusalem against autopsies in Israeli hospitals. Orthodox Jews generally oppose autopsies.

In Tel Aviv, 20 demonstrators and three policemen were injured in rioting during a rally in support of intensified efforts to cope with growing unemployment.

The rioters smashed windows and clashed with mounted police armed with batons and shields.

Assassination Probe Continues in Court, Secret Jury Sessions

By BILL CRIDER

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The Kennedy assassination conspiracy probe moved on two fronts today — with legal fighting in the courtroom and secret sessions by the grand jury.

Defense lawyers for Clay L. Shaw accused the state of trying to bulldoze controversial testimony into the preliminary hearing.

The hearing, called by Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison in a rare proceeding, decides only whether Shaw must go to trial on a charge of conspiring to murder President John F. Kennedy.

However, the court record compiled here could automatically go into any subsequent trial. And the trend of testimony kept the defense in a lather of objections and argument.

Shaw, 54, a retired executive, showed signs of weariness as the hearing moved through its third day Thursday. His eyes were bloodshot, his suit rumpled.

"How would you like to swap places with me?" he asked a newsman, with a grim smile.

Free under $10,000 bond, Shaw was booked — but not formally charged — with conspiracy to murder the President. He says he knows nothing about any such plot.

The Orleans Parish (County) grand jury, which has occupied Garrison's full time over the past two days, indicted a puzzling figure from the Warren Commission hearing Thursday — charging Dean A. Andrews Jr., 44, with perjury.

The hefty, five-talking lawyer posted $1,000 bond Thursday night. He said he had no idea what led to the charge. He testified before the grand jury last week and again Thursday.

"They must think I have some key that turns the lock and unlocks everything," he said, "but I don't even know where the lock is."

Andrews, who said he had advised Lee Harvey Oswald on some minor legal matters in 1963, told the Warren Commission that a man he knew as "Clay Bertrand" telephoned him after the assassination and asked him to represent Oswald in Dallas.

The FBI was never able to find a "Clay Bertrand" and Andrews said he couldn't either. Garrison contends that Shaw used Bertrand as an alias.

The accusation by the district attorney was backed up by the preliminary hearing testimony of Perry R. Russo, 25, who went through two days of tough cross-examination before the defense let him off the stand Thursday.

Russo said he knew Shaw as "Clay Bertrand." And he said he was present when Shaw, Oswald and the late David W. Ferrie plotted to assassinate Kennedy.

Defends the Poverty Program

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — More poverty money is reaching the people than critics of the program say, Thomas Berry, assistant director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, said Thursday.

Berry, national director of the Community Action Program, said less than six per cent of the money appropriated for the community project went for salaries.

He estimated that about five million persons were involved in the community program.

Berry was in Little Rock for a visit to a community action training center, and later met with Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller. He also plans to visit poverty programs in St. Francis and Mississippi counties before returning to Washington.

House Votes More Money for the War

By BILL CRIDER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has voted overwhelmingly to give President Johnson nearly all the extra money he's asked for the Vietnam war.

By a 385-11 margin, the House passed Thursday and sent to the Senate a $12.19-billion emergency appropriation bill for defense. That was only $79.3 million less than Johnson asked.

The House action came as Johnson signed an authorization bill passed earlier by Congress covering $4.59 billion of the sum voted Thursday for Vietnam fighting.

The President hailed the measure as adding strength to U.S. efforts to attain "an honorable settlement" of the war.

Before approving the appropriation bill, the House crushed 123 to 2 an amendment that would have put it in opposition to a land invasion of North Vietnam.

Final Senate approval of the emergency appropriation would boost to about $71 billion the amount allocated to defense during the current fiscal year.

Johnson is asking about $72 billion for defense for the year starting July 1.

In the Senate, Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield suggested that the United States work through the United Nations Security Council to bring nations involved in the war to the peace table for talks.

Mansfield said a Security Council invitation should go to all nations "deeply involved" in the Vietnam struggle, including non-U.N. members North Vietnam and Communist China.

The Montana said he's hopeful that secret diplomacy eventually will lead to peace talks, but added: "In my judgment, if there is to be peace in Vietnam, the need remains for a direct confrontation of views between all of the principals."

Two Arkansas Killed in War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Arkansasians were identified Thursday by the Pentagon as having been killed in Vietnam. They were Pfc. Freddie L. Friar, husband of Mrs. Faye Friar, of Blytheville; and Spec. 4 Lonnie E. Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parker, of Success.

The bill, endorsed by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, would be "a major step in helping to wipe out poverty in Arkansas," Becker said.

"We are under the impression that many senators do not want to be recorded on this issue," Becker said in a letter sent to each state senator.

Union Calls for Vote on Wage Bill

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — J. Bill Becker, president of the Arkansas AFL-CIO, called Thursday for Arkansas senators to vote on a bill that would establish a minimum wage in the state.

The bill (SB303) sets a minimum wage of $1 an hour, increasing to $1.20 after two years.

The bill, endorsed by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, would be "a major step in helping to wipe out poverty in Arkansas," Becker said.

Consular Treaty Is Approved

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate ratification of the controversial U.S.-Soviet consular treaty in effect backs President Johnson's policy of improving relations with Moscow despite the Vietnam war.

The next step is up to Moscow — and U.S. officials expected today that the Soviet president, or legislative body, would soon stamp its customary automatic ratification on the document which U.S. and Soviet negotiators signed in June 1964.

The consular convention is the first treaty ever concluded between just the United States and the Soviet Union. U.S.-Soviet treaties existed in the pre-Communist czarist days, and in more recent times both countries have joined in multinational pacts like the limited nuclear test ban treaty.

The consular treaty sets forth technical procedures to be followed in various nondiplomatic dealings between the two nations.

If an American visitor is arrested in the Soviet Union, for instance, a U. S. official has under the treaty the right of access to the American within four days. And consular officers of the two countries are to be accorded diplomatic immunity similar to that of embassy personnel.

Clean-up Is Planned by Shover Club

The Shover Springs 4-H Club is taking "Community Clean-up" as a project this year. William Dillion, Gary Daffern, and Kenneth Allen were selected as a committee to decide just what needed to be done. They met with the Club President, Lanette Arrington, Saturday, February 25, and set up a "clean-up" program.

They also met March 4, and made Litter Bags to be given out. The State Highway Department has promised to put a trash barrel on Highway No. 32 and one on Highway No. 4, so people traveling can use these instead of throwing cans and paper along highways.

It is hoped to get more cans to put on our county roads and hope people will help keep our community clean.

Shover Springs 4-H Club will conduct their "clean-up" - "pick-up" program in the community March 18, according to Mrs. Truman Arrington, club main leader.

Tax to Restore U.S. Business Economy Is Rocketing Through

By EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's bill to restore two stimulating tax breaks to businesses is rocketing through Congress.

But it's leaving in its wake doubts as to whether lawmakers — now showing such enthusiasm for one form of tax cut — will turn around in a few weeks and endorse the income tax increase for individuals and businesses that Johnson has advocated.

The House passed the bill to restore the investment credit and depreciation speedup 385 to 2 Thursday, just a week after Johnson asked Congress to act.

The Senate Finance Committee already has set hearings on it for Monday and Tuesday.

The Senate-House Economic Committee advised Congress Thursday to defer judgment on the proposed income tax boost. The panel said optimistic projections about an upturn in the economy at midyear may not come true.

The House, during debate on the investment credit bill, showed every inclination of following this advice.

The Federal Reserve Board reported a substantial drop in industrial production, providing ammunition to opponents of the income tax increase.

The board's announcement of a 2.1 point drop in the index of industrial output during February, the second consecutive monthly decline, followed Wednesday's report of a 15.1 per cent decline in housing starts last month.

Another key economic indicator that could bear on the decision whether the nation could stand a tax increase — the rate of unemployment — was reported unchanged at 3.7 per cent last month. But because of the production decline, weekly earnings of factory workers went down $1.54 to $111.48, reflecting a drop in the average work week.

Congress' stop, look and listen attitude on the tax increase was reflected in a statement made during the House debate Thursday. Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee, noted that Johnson has sent up no tax-raising legislation yet.

Added Mills: "There is nothing before Congress now except the statement of the President that he would some time ask us to consider some form of surtax. I have no idea what this may indicate as to the desirable thing to do later in the year."

One Bomber Hits Hanoi Power Plant

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

SAIGON (AP) — A lone Navy jet bomber dodged a hail of gunfire and four guided missiles Thursday night to attack North Vietnam's newest major power plant only 20 miles from Hanoi.

Intelligence officers said the plant, at Bac Giang, reportedly generates 9 per cent of North Vietnam's power and appears to be the main unit in the Hanoi area's power system.

The pilot, Cmdr. Ronald J. Hays, 39, of Olla, La., dropped 13,000 pounds of bombs. But he said he could not assess the damage because it was too dark and "too many things were happening."

It was the fourth attack on a major element of North Vietnam's industry within a week. Last Friday and Saturday U.S. Air Force planes bombed the Communist regime's only steel-fabricating plant — its largest heavy industry installation — at Thai Nguyen, 38 miles north of Hanoi, and on Sunday an electric power plant was hit at Viet Tri, 32 miles from Hanoi.

Hays' weather intruder from the rrier Kitty Hawk zigzagged through dark and cloudy skies until just before the bomb hit the power plant.

Dodging off the target after unleashing his 13 bombs, Hays threw his supersonic jet into violent twists to escape four Soviet-built surface-to-air missiles thrown up at him. One exploded close below the plane.

"I've had enough excitement for a lifetime," said Hays as he and his bombardier-navigator, Lt. Ted Been of Houghton, Mich., returned to the flight deck of the Kitty Hawk.

The power plant raid was one of 78 missions flown over the North Thursday despite heavy weather. Other strikes concentrated on roads, railroads, bridges, barges and other supply facilities.

Bonus for Civilians, Not the GIs

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. civilians working for Defense Department agencies in Vietnam will continue to receive a 25 per cent pay bonus while American servicemen there lose a cost of living allowance.

This bonus, called a "post differential," is an incentive payment to Civil Service employees who volunteer for duty in certain overseas locations where there is an element of hardship.

"This differential pay is not being stopped," the Pentagon said. "It is required under employment agreements."

The question was raised with the Defense Department after it announced last week plans to halt on May 1 a cost of living allowance now collected by more than 31,200 U.S. servicemen, most of them stationed in the Saigon area.

That action is calculated to save about $21 million a year.

Teachers in Bronx Back to Classes

NEW YORK (AP) — Striking teachers at a Bronx junior high school voted to return to their classes today after the Board of Education offered to set up a "brat patrol" to curb violence by pupils.

The 79 teachers, who had submitted their resignations last Tuesday in protest of a growing wave of assaults and boisterousness in classrooms, met for more than three hours to debate a plan given them by the superintendent of schools Bernard E. Donovan.

They voted shortly after 1 a.m. to give a trial run to Donovan's proposals for improving the present school disciplinary procedures.
